Northants stays blue

THE county was painted blue on Friday night as the county council election results saw a Conservative landslide.

Leader Jim Harker celebrated his party retaining the authority by declaring he wants to serve for another eight years.

See page 3 for a round-up of all the election news.

WE WON: The Conservative Party celebrates its election victory in Northamptonshire

Chief turns down pay for her election role

BY LAURA CORCORAN
laura.corcoran@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE woman in charge of this year's county council election waived her right to thousands of pounds to carry out the job.

Northamptonshire County Council chief executive Katherine Kerswell also acted as the authority's returning officer at Friday's election count.

The election, held at Kettering Conference Centre, saw the Conservatives retain control of the council with a landslide victory.

Ms Kerswell, who already earns between £153,670 and £187,776 for her role of chief executive, would have been eligible to claim an additional fee for overseeing the election.

But she decided not to take the additional cash - saving tax payers around £4,000.

Her actions come at a time when MPs have come in for criticism for their hefty expenses claims - even though most of them acted within Government rules.

Although individual councils are responsible for the amount paid to retuning officers, others around the country have claimed between £3,000 and £6,000.

It is believed Ms Kerswell felt her role as chief executive encompassed that of returning officer, although legally the roles are distinct.

The returning officer is responsible for the conduct of the election from start to finish, including overseeing the count on the night and announcing the results.

A county council spokesman said: "The duties of the returning officer are separate from their duties as a local government officer.

"They are personally liable for the conduct of the election and are answerable to the High Court.

"At the election count the returning officer has the responsibility of declaring the results.

"A returning officer can claim a sum of money for carrying out their duties. However for this election Katherine Kerswell is not claiming any money."

A second statement added: "The decision not to claim any money for the role of returning officer at this election was a personal decision made by the chief executive."

Commenting on Ms Kerswell's salary band as chief executive, the spokesman added: "As part of a wide-ranging project taking place in the last few years known as the effective leadership review the council agreed to review the salary bands of all senior management roles.

"Our current chief executive is paid a salary within the pay grade agreed for this post. This band is currently between £153,670 and £187,776."

Sentence handed out to sex pest dustman

A VIRGIN dustman sent explicit text messages to an underage girl only a month after he had been cautioned for pestering another teenager.

Bradley Mann never met the 15-year-old victim, but got hold of her number when she lent her mobile to a friend who had wanted to text him.

Northampton Crown Court heard on Tuesday how Mann had bombarded the girl with calls and sexually explicit texts.

Stuart Yeung, prosecuting, said: "She did not encourage the defendant but he began to ask for group sex. She was able to block the defendant from sending texts, but could not stop the telephone calls which she rejected."

Mann from Humber Avenue, Bedford was caught after calling the girl 53 times on July 13 last year. She was at a family party and told her mother, who called the police.

When questioned Mann said he knew what he had done was wrong, but said he was a virgin and just wanted to have sex.

He admitted inciting a child under 16 to engage in sexual activity.

The judge was told he had been cautioned by police in Bedfordshire for similar messages to a 17-year-old girl in June last year. He had turned up at her gym and at the supermarket where she worked.

Maria Karaiskos, defending Mann, told the court: "Emotionally and socially he is a child himself."

Mann received a community order with three years' supervision and must attend a sex offenders' group work programme. He was also given a three-month curfew and must sign the sex offenders' register.

Judge Charles Wide said: "The risk that you pose can be minimised by you doing this course, but you must be punished in my judgement and I can do this by imposing a curfew."

Body of teenager pulled from water

BY TOBY LOCK
tobylock@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE body of missing teenager Steven Vernon has been found in Sywell Reservoir.

Police pulled his body from the water on Wednesday, June 3

Mr Vernon, 19, of Bellinge, Northampton, went missing on Tuesday, May 26 while out jogging with a friend. A man-hunt ensued over the next week before a body was found last Wednesday.

A police spokesman said: "Mr Vernon's family have been told of the positive identification.

"An inquest has now been opened and adjourned and the cause of death has been given as immersion in water."

Off-road vehicles, police search helicopters and a Spartan Rescue team using specialist sonar equipment helped out in the week-long search for Mr Vernon's body.

A witness had confirmed to police that, on the day Mr Vernon went missing, a man had been seen wading up to his ankles in the reservoir, splashing water on himself.

The body was located in the 60-acre reservoir by sonar equipment and divers from Thames Valley Police's underwater search team made the recovery.

Mr Vernon, a keen martial arts enthusiast, was out training in Sywell Country Park when he told his friend he wanted to take a swim.

After completing another lap, his friend returned to find a pile of Mr Vernon's clothes, but no sign of him.

Chief Inspector Andy Collins said: "His friend ran on and didn't see him enter the water.

"When she got back to the point she had last seen him, she found some of his clothing on the bank but no sign of Steven.

"She had a look for Steven, thinking he maybe was playing a prank. She raised the alarm shortly after."

FOUND: Steven Vernon and top, search teams take to the water during the hunt for the teenager

PCSO hit and run

A PCSO was knocked off his bicycle while on duty in a hit and run incident.

The road traffic collision took place at about 9.10pm on Tuesday, June 9 when the officer was riding his bicycle at the junction of Nursery Lane and Dorset Road.

A vehicle knocked him off his bike, causing him to fall to the ground.

The PCSO, who suffered significant cuts and bruises, was in full uniform at the time. The vehicle did not stop at the scene.

Anyone who witnessed the incident or who has any information should contact Northamptonshire Police on 03000 111222.

And the glass figures are in

MORE than 270 tonnes of glass bottles and jars were collected in the first week of the new kerbside collection scheme.

Northampton Borough Council believes collection of glass gives access to the service for those residents who due to age, infirmity or disability, or problems with transport are unable to recycle their glass at their nearest bottle bank or household waste recycling centre.

Cabinet member for the environment, Cllr Trini Crake said: "Recycling rates are increasing in Northampton and the council is committed to making recycling and waste prevention a priority.

"The new glass collections are just another way of helping households to do their bit."

National figures indicate that glass makes up about eight per cent of our household waste. It is estimated that by introducing the glass-recycling scheme the residents of Northampton will be diverting 4,500 tonnes of glass from landfill.

Election special...Election special...Election

Tories retain council control

FRIDAY night saw a blue wave spread over the county as the Conservatives took a massive 56 out of the 71 seats available at Northamptonshire County Council. The Liberal Democrats took nine seats, beating Labour into third place with six as the Tories regained the council. Two Independents make up those elected. Residents voted with their feet as only 37.5 per cent turned out, the lowest amount since 1981. Reporter TOBY LOCK examines the fall-out from last week's elections.

UPLIFTING: Tory leader Jim Harker is held aloft by members of his party after their election victory

A TWELVE year reign would be ideal for county council leader Cllr Jim Harker.

Cllr Harker heralded the hard work of everyone involved in the Tory campaign which saw them dominate Thursday's elections.

He believes another eight years in charge would help them turn the council around.

He said: "I am pleased to have been given another four years and I wouldn't mind another four after this. A 12 year period to turn the council round would be good.

"Four years is not a very long period, but it has been a very hard four years. There have been a lot of hard decisions and there are hard decisions to come.

"It is a terrific result for the Conservatives in Northamptonshire and we are hearing great things all over the country.

"For the people of Northamptonshire, we hope to continue the work we have done in the last four years.

"People appreciate tax below the rate of inflation.

"I thank all the candidates and all the parties, especially people like Brian Hoare and John McGhee for the last four years and their hard work.

"It is a great day for the Conservatives in the county."

The count at Kettering Conference Centre saw a turnout of just 37.5 per cent - with many people voting with their feet and avoiding the polls.

In 2005 63.8 per cent of the population voted.

But that didn't damper the spirit of Cllr Harker.

He told the Herald & Post: "The main reason we have won is because of the lowest council tax in the country.

"Labour is in meltdown and Liberal Democrat votes have gone to the Conservative candidates."

■ Friday's victory didn't stop the Tories making changes at the top.

At the group's annual meeting on Monday, Cllr Joan Kirkbride was elected Deputy Group Leader, replacing Cllr Ben Smith.

Cllr Harker said: "It is something we change from time to time. We held an election and Ben narrowly lost out to Joan."

'National policies cost us'

NATIONAL politics have been blamed for Labour's crushing defeat at the county council elections.

Party leader Cllr John McGhee, pictured, was one of just six Labour candidates to win seats in the elections. He believes national rather than local issues had been taken into account when the public went to the polls on Thursday.

He said: "This is extremely difficult for me, but democracy speaks and it has spoken.

"I would like to thank all the staff and all the Labour candidates who fought for all the local issues.

"If people had looked at local issues instead of national policies we would have had a different result today.

"I'm extremely disappointed for all the hard working Labour councillors who put a lot of time and effort into their communities.

"We have lost hard working councillors because of national policies.

"I would call on Labour to go back to grassroots and go back to the streets in the county and country-wide.

"Six weeks ago when the elections started I thought we could have had a hung council where all parties would have had a say.

"However, due to national issues we will now see the next four years bring some of the worst cutbacks in local government we have ever seen in Northamptonshire."

CELEBRATIONS: Cllr Brendan Glynane and his family.

Party picks new leader

THE LIBERAL Democrats will back a new leader as they form the opposition group at Northamptonshire County Council.

Cllr Brendan Glynane has been elected as leader of the party replacing Brian Hoare who lost out by just nine votes for his Abington seat last at Thursday's elections.

Cllr Glynane, who represents the Delapre ward, was 'on top of the world' after finding out he was the new leader.

He said: "Brian Hoare will be a hard act to follow. Brian was certainly a very capable leader, very challenging of the Conservatives and putting forward an alternative way of thinking.

"Although I will not be working in the same way that he did, we as the opposition will be looking at the budget very carefully to make sure that no front line services will be cut.

"We have a big part to play."

Despite losing Mr Hoare's seat in Abington, Cllr Glynane was positive about the outcome of last week's election.

He said: "It was a good election result for the Liberal Democrats, considering the spread of the Conservatives. We held our own, and we have improved outside of Northampton, by winning a seat in Corby."

Letters to the Editor:
Herald & Post, Newspaper House, Derngate, Northampton NN1 1NN

Why cut green waste at the height of growing season?

WHAT asinine comments from the environment portfolio councillor over the question of reducing the collection of green waste to once every four weeks to facilitate the collection of glass.

She states - 'Thirty per cent of people never put brown bins out' - how many people live in flats or have back yards but no gardens? She further states '49.34 tonnes of glass were collected on Monday, June 1 - saving 49.34 tonnes from landfill.'

Is she not aware that many citizens, prior to this new system, used to take their bottles and jars to the bins provided at Supermarkets etc. So an emphatic statement by her is wrong.

Fancy introducing the scheme at the height of the growing season when brown bins require fortnightly collection.

Why have Daventry District Council in the villages north of Northampton organised the collection of glass with tins and plastic - even the employment of extra staff to sort out would not cost £1 million - unless staff are overpaid.

J. Fearn
Northampton

We need MP to take action

YOUR correspondent from Roade missed one of the occupations of our much admired and revered MP Brian Binley.

He is also a businessman which makes it even harder to understand how he fits all these jobs in.

Northampton is in a real mess. We have two councils, the borough and county, when we should have only one.

We currently have a council which is determined to shut everything.

We do not have any more town shows to speak of, the balloon festival closed, no more fireworks displays in Becket's Park, care homes being closed, workshops for people with learning disabilities being shut down etc.

We have a police service that is virtually useless, yet councillors are falling over themselves in effusive praise for the lowering of crime when recent letters to your column suggest that the police are just too idle to attend a crime scene.

Mr Binley, instead of doing something about these problems, has come up with something he knows he cannot get through parliament.

Is anyone going to be fooled by his idiotic private members bill to enable minimum wage employees to ask for a pay cut in order to stay in their jobs?

Will he claim to have saved the nation when hordes of low paid employees demand an immediate reduction in their hourly rates or is it, as we know about most MPs, a matter of self interest? After all, one of the claims he makes is that he is a businessman and therefore he must know something about paying employees minimum rates.

I would put money on that he has no intention of giving up his lifestyle to save anyone's job.

As a retired businessman myself I thought the minimum wage was a great idea.

It meant that I knew what to pay any unskilled worker when hiring them.

The minimum wage act also gave incremental steps according to age.

I felt that the legislation, rather than a drawback, guaranteed fair pay for everyone.

There's no fooling us over expenses

HOW can our MPs think they can fool us about how they have milked the expenses game.

Brian Binley and Sally Keeble raced each other to see who could reach the £150,000 mark first. Don't they ever use their £100,000 salary at all?

Mr Binley has the nerve to suggest that firms should be able to pay workers less than the minimum wage, Keeble says sorry about the washing machine she bought on expenses for £260.

Thank you for voting for me again

I WOULD like to take this opportunity of thanking the electorate of the Deanshanger Division for re-electing me as their county councillor for another four years, especially the 1,918 that voted for me personally, albeit it was disappointing to only get a 0.5 per cent turnout in the division.

It is apparent there appears to be an all round lack of confidence in politicians at present.

As with my previous 12 years in office I will continue to be available to look after all persuasions of the community and support the vulnerable where necessary and will also endeavour to protect our rural way of life, as promised.

Again thank you.

Allen Walker
County councillor for Deanshanger

We need to know about any charges

WE all want to see the return of the Balloon Festival.

Northamptonshire is the only county not to feature an annual show.

However, is it not the case that the only reason Billing Aquadrome will take on this festival is that it will charge its mandatory £10 admission fee to the Aquadrome in the first place?

I urge you to investigate whether or not this will be the case or not.

Billing Aquadrome is very good at taking people's money for what is a drab and second rate experience

Fair's fair for council says inspector report

AN audit commission report has rated the borough council as 'fair.'

The report, which looked at the council's policies, procedures and plans for the future, also found it had 'excellent' prospects for improvement.

Northampton Borough Council welcomed the report, which praised it for the ease residents have in contacting the council and accessing services.

Inspectors looked at the processes taking place within the council, observed customers and acted as mystery shoppers.

Council leader Cllr Tony Woods said: "We are committed to being among the best councils in terms of public service by 2013, and this report confirms we are moving in the right direction.

"We recognise that we still have some way to go but this report is excellent news for the staff who have worked so hard to implement the many improvements and for our customers who are seeing positive changes.

"This is the second Audit Commission report this year to recognise the improvements we are making and solid foundations we have built."

A copy of the report is available online by visiting the council's website www.northampton.gov.uk

SPEED: Some of the action from last year's race at the circuit

Calls to keep the GP at Silverstone

BY TOBY LOCK
toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

BERNIE Ecclestone has been urged by a town MP to re-think his decision to move the British Grand Prix away from Silverstone.

Brian Binley, MP for Northampton South, has met with George Osborne, the Shadow Chancellor of the Exchequer asking him and David Cameron to meet with the F1 chief to discuss the future of the event.

Donington Park, where the race will be held from 2010, has reassured fans that the circuit will be ready in time for next year despite disputes over rent.

There had been rumours that if the new course were not ready in time, the event would return to Silverstone.

But Mr Ecclestone has denied that, saying that if Donnington is not ready the race will go abroad. However, Mr Binley believes that 'calamitous job losses' could ensue in the county as a result of it losing the race.

There are around 50,000 jobs in the motor sport industry in a 40-mile radius of Silverstone, and many of these could be at risk if the country lost its annual Grand Prix.

Mr Binley said: "Britain's position in Grand Prix racing is further emphasised when one realises that of the ten Formula 1 teams presently racing, six are from the UK, of which four are based in or around Northamptonshire.

"Bernie Ecclestone has repeatedly said that the race would not return to Silverstone and he indeed reiterated that fact just four weeks ago in a telephone conversation with Lord Mandelson.

"Bernie has the opportunity to become a big man for Britain. He simply needs to stop thinking as the proprietor of the sport and begin thinking about the well-being of his country.

"Britain has been good to Bernie Ecclestone and it's now time for him to be good to Britain."

MP withdraws support for under fire Gordon Brown

REBEL MP Sally Keeble believes time 'really has run out' for Prime Minister Gordon Brown.

The Labour MP for Northampton North sent a letter to constituents last week telling them she was withdrawing her support for Mr Brown.

And despite the PM receiving the backing of the Parliamentary Labour Party, Mrs Keeble still believes it is time for the former chancellor to go.

Foreign Secretary David Miliband assured the public the Labour party does not want a new leader following Monday's meeting, but the Northampton backbencher believes it is time for an election.

Mrs Keeble said: "I think it is really important that there needs to be a proper election process.

"This is not a plot, this is a statement of what my views are.

"And I thought it would be better to put it openly."

National reports have suggested that Alan Johnson is emerging as the most popular replacement for Mr Brown, but Mrs Keeble said she does not have any favoured alternative at this time.

In her letter she said: 'Gordon Brown was the obvious successor to Tony Blair. Both were architects of New Labour...

'The transition from Chancellor to Prime Minister was not an easy one, and when Gordon said in the autumn of 2007 he wanted more time to put forward his vision, that seemed fair.

'However, 18 months on it is painfully clear that time has really run out. Firstly, the vision has not materialised. The economy is the most important factor, and he was the right man to deal with the crisis. But people look to their Prime Minister for more than that.

'People in Northampton work hard, pay their way and look after their families.

'They look to Government for high quality public services, and a sense of purpose and direction for the country.

'The Prime Minister is the person who has to articulate that, and sadly, it hasn't happened.'

She added: 'By the next General Election the Labour Party needs to put forward a coherent vision with a credible team.'

Election special

WHEN the county went to the polls last week, we brought you the latest news of what was happening on our fantastic website.

On Friday evening, our team was at the count and in the office to bring you the election results as they happened.

Not only did we tell you who was elected to serve on Northamptonshire County Council and the amount of votes each candidate had won, we brought you reaction from the people that mattered; party leaders, those who'd lost their seats and some of the area's MPs.

Why you need to go and vote

LET me paint a picture.

An image of a country struggling to come to terms with a recession that started in America, politicians increasingly unpopular with their people and a Government struggling to cope with the effects of a war that has brought it to its knees.

And extremism on the increase.

Sound familiar?

Of course it does, but I'm not talking about Britain in 2009, the credit crunch, New Labour or the ever more unpopular War on Terror.

This is a portrayal of German in the 1930's.

Crippled by First World War reparations, Germany hit rock bottom following the Wall Street Crash in 1929.

The Great Depression hit the country hard because the German economy's well-being depended on short-term loans from the United States (now that really does sound familiar).

Unemployment leapt to almost 30 per cent by 1932 and the Centre Party chancellor Heinrich Bruening made drastic budget cuts designed to stop the Allies asking for more money.

The result spiralled the country into social discontent and allowed a certain Adolf Hitler to build up a strong following of malcontents.

From a tiny extremist group in 1919 the Nazi Party grew to eventually take power in 1932.

Yet even at the height of its electoral success the party only won 37.4 per cent of the vote.

At last week's European Elections fringe parties, including the British National Party and UKIP, won 31.3 per cent of the vote.

The far right BNP, which won't even allow black or Asian people into the party, won 6.2 per cent - a similar percentage of the vote to the 6.5 per cent won by the Nazi's in 1924, just eight years before they gained power.

Scoff as you might at Nick Griffin gaining a seat in Europe, but the danger of radicalism is alive and well. Only now its based in Yorkshire and The Humber.

> That is why when Gordon Brown eventually calls a General Election it is vital that as many sensible, thoughtful, honest and egalitarian Britons get down to the polling booths

And although sensible voters in Northamptonshire condemned the vile BNP to another year with no wins in the county council elections, a total of 3,825 people throughout the area still chose to vote for its candidates.

With sensible voters opting to stay at home in protest at the economic crises and MPs expenses scandal, BNP candidates were often earning close to 20 per cent of the vote.

And that is why when Gordon Brown eventually calls a General Election it is vital that as many sensible, thoughtful, honest and egalitarian Britons get down to the polling booths.

Yes, MPs need to move away from silly arguments in the Westminster bearpit and luxurious second homes kitted out with taxpayers money.

But it is also down to you and I to make sure we execute our electoral right - even if only to say no to extremist idiots like the BNP.

Otherwise the picture might get much bleaker.

Air Ambulance is a TV ratings winner

THE crew from Warwickshire and Northamptonshire Air Ambulance (WNAA) are celebrating after topping TV ratings in popular fly on the wall documentary, The Real A&E.

In the week ending May 24 it was the most watched commissioned programme of the week to be aired on Sky 1, Sky 2 and Sky HD.

Chief executive Andy Williamson said: "We are delighted with the response to the programme and so are the crew, many of them have even become local celebrities and have been recognised while out and about.

DOCUMENTARY: Scenes from the show are pictured above and top

"The documentary series, which has 50 episodes and is on air for ten weeks, follows the work of the WNAA crew as they attend life saving missions and provide expert medical care to their patients."

On May 21 the third episode of The Real A&E achieved one of the highest viewing figures achieved so far when an audience of 32,000 tuned in to see their flying heroes.

Brothers jailed for people trafficking

BY COURT REPORTER
news@hpnorthants.co.uk

A MAN who boasted he was Europe's biggest people smuggler has been given a nine-year prison term for a people trafficking operation which saw hundreds of illegal immigrants brought into the UK.

Abdul Hameed Sakhizada, 33, from Wellingborough Road, Northampton, was jailed at Kingston Crown Court after he admitted a charge of conspiracy to contravene the Immigration Act.

A charge of conspiracy to transfer criminal property was allowed to lie on file, while two other members of his gang were also jailed.

Abdul Wakil Niazi, 35, of Camden Road, Tunbridge Wells, Kent, was sentenced to 12 years in prison after he was found guilty of conspiracy to contravene the Immigration Act and conspiracy to transfer criminal property.

Sakhizada's brother Ahmed Shah Sakhizada, 24, of Wellingborough Road, Northampton, was sentenced to seven years after he was also found guilty of both counts.

During the trial Kingston Crown Court heard the gang was known to be responsible for the illegal immigration of at least 230 young men into Europe, mainly from Pakistan and Afghanistan, although the number was likely to be higher.

The gang hid behind a web of pizza shops across the country, including in Northampton, Kent, Berkshire, and Essex, where the immigrants were set to work to pay off their 'debt' of up to £10,000.

They smuggled victims through Afghanistan into Iran and Turkey then to the Greek Islands and into European countries including the UK.

Surveillance by the Serious Organised Crime Agency recorded Abdul Hameed Sakhizada, who lived above a pizza shop in Northampton, in January 2008 saying that in two months he had moved 1,800 people.

He boasted: "I am Europe's agent, I am the smuggler of Europe."

GP traffic plans in place

THE usual traffic delays are expected ahead of the British Grand Prix.

The arrangements for the Silverstone event on June 19, 20 and 21 will be very similar to the past five years.

The traffic management put in place will help race goers get in and out of the event as smoothly as possible, with cross-country traffic kept separate from race traffic.

Drivers who use the A43 and residents are being given advance notice of these changes and diversion routes so they can plan their journeys or make alternative arrangements if necessary. Non-race traffic is advised to avoid roads in the area if possible.

Chairwoman of the Inter Agency Group and chief executive of South Northamptonshire Council Jean Morgan said: "We have done everything possible to ensure residents and businesses are disrupted as little as possible while allowing spectators to get to and from the event easily.

"Everyone has been very co-operative and understanding. Residents recognise the importance to the economy and the prestige that comes with having such a major international sporting event on our doorstep."

Paul Sinfield, Highways Agency route performance manager for the A43, said: "We have used the experiences of the last five years to do everything we can to reduce delays and make journeys easier for everyone attending the Grand Prix.

"We would urge everyone using the roads in the area over the Grand Prix weekend to plan their journey in advance and leave extra time as the roads will be busy and clearly signed diversion routes will be in place.

"We will use our motorway message signs to give road users information about diversion routes and delays, and provide up to the minute traffic information using local radio and our own DAB Traffic Radio service.

"For the first time this year you can also access a mobile version of our website using your phone while stopped for a break, or as a passenger."

Chief Constable Peter Maddison of Northamptonshire Police said: "We will continue to work hard with our partners to ensure another smooth and safe event, not only for race goers attending Silverstone but also those people who live and work close to the circuit and who face temporary disruption."

Formula One cars set to go under the hammer

BY TOBY LOCK
toby.lock@hpnorthants.co.uk

FORMULA One Championship high-flyers Brawn GP will sell off a selection of historic cars at this year's Silverstone Classic.

The team from Brackley were saved at the last minute after Honda withdrew from the sport and haven't looked back since, picking up six wins from seven races.

Historic race cars, scale 1:1 show cars and a range of items from the team's memorabilia collection are among the lots on offer at the event on Saturday, July 25.

The cars on sale date from 2001 to 2006 and cover the ownership periods of the team by British American Tobacco and Honda.

They have been driven by top drivers including 1997 World Champion Jacques Villeneuve, Jenson Button and Rubens Barrichello.

The race and show cars will be in rolling chassis form (without engines or other ancillaries) and estimates are expected to range from £7,000-£22,000.

In addition, up to 100 lots of memorabilia will be sold including race overalls, component spares and merchandise.

James Knight, international managing director of the Bonhams Motoring Department, said: "We are very excited to have been appointed by Brawn GP to sell these exclusive items from their extensive memorabilia collection.

"All Formula One teams accumulate a fairly large collection of race chassis over the years and the timing of the Brawn GP sale could not be better.

"The team have been the undoubted stars of the 2009 Formula One season and this sale enables collectors and their legion of fans to acquire some fabulous historic lots".

Nick Fry, chief executive of Brawn GP, said: "Brawn GP is extremely proud of our heritage with British American Tobacco and Honda, and we have inherited a vast collection of historic race cars and memorabilia from the team's early years.

"We are delighted to be able to give collectors and our fans the opportunity to share in our history and purchase some fantastic items, including actual race cars, through this unique sale."

Creative mixture

BY LAURA CORCORAN
laura.corcoran@hpnorthants.co.uk

STAFF and students from the University of Northampton are busy preparing for its popular Summer Show.

The show opens at Avenue Campus today.

This year for the first time, the show includes film, video and performance, as well as fashion, fine art and design work.

Divisional leader for Fine Art, Christine Midgley said: "The event requires a huge amount of preparation from the teaching and technical staff as well as, of course, the students and the opening evening is the highlight of the year in the School of The Arts.

"It is a celebration of all that is best in the creative arts at the university."

The event will be opened at 6pm and will run until Friday, June 19.

LEARNING ABOUT MODERN DAY LIFE IN INDIA

MEMBERS of the Rotary Club of Northampton were given an insight into 21st century India on Monday.

The group were treated to a talk from Deepak Mukhi, Oxford University's programme director for Undergraduate Studies, an educational organisation which brings talented undergraduate students for a term or an academic year to study at the university.

Born in New Delhi, Mr Mukhi first came to England to read economics at Cambridge University. He has lived in Oxford for 18 years with his wife, who is also from India.

WITNESS APPEAL AFTER INDECENT EXPOSURE

A MAN indecently exposed himself to two young girls in Vicarage Road last week.

The incident took place at about 6.10pm on Thursday, June 4 when a man in a silver car approached an 11-year-old girl and an eight-year-old girl.

The man exposed himself to the two girls before they both walked off.

The offender watched the two girls leave before driving off towards Dallington Road.

He is described as white, aged in his 30s or 40s, with brown scruffy hair.

Anyone with any information should contact Northamptonshire Police on 03000 111222.

80s fashion a boost for kids

BY LAURA CORCORAN
laura.corcoran@hpnorthants.co.uk

CELEBRATE good times, come on!

Eighties fashion was all the rage at a charity disco held on Friday, June 5 at the Picturedrome, Northampton.

The event was organised to raise money for children's charity KidsAid, which helps children who have suffered from traumatic events, ranging from illness and peer pressure through to family bereavements, domestic violence and abuse.

BBC Radio Northampton's DJ and presenter Mark Dean was in charge of music for the evening and Paul Ennever also from BBC Radio Northampton helped out with promotion of the event and the raffle on the night.

More than £1,300 was raised for KidsAid through ticket sales and raffles.

Organiser Kaja Jarosz said: "A huge thank you to everyone involved in making the night such a success and of course to everyone who came along, including, Madonna, Michael Jackson and Boy George."

'Lives at risk warning' to thieves

COPPER thieves who raid electricity substations are putting their lives in danger.

That is the stark warning from energy company Central Networks following a series of incidents involving the theft of copper cabling across central England.

One such raid saw vandals disconnect cabling carrying 33,000 volts at a substation in Corby.

Four similar raids have also taken place across Central Networks' area.

Customer operations manager Phil Wilson said: "This type of vandalism, which not only puts the thieves' lives but also the lives of others in danger, is both inconsiderate and foolish. Ignoring safety warnings about the dangers at our substations could result in vandals being seriously injured, badly burned or even electrocuted."

Thousands of customers could also be cut off as a result of such raids.

Central Networks is offering a £1,000 reward for information leading to the successful prosecution and conviction of those responsible.

Anyone with information about who is committing these crimes can call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

BY CRAIG LEWIS

A SERIES of interactive events aimed at celebrating the success of youngsters are due to take place at the University of Northampton.

The first ever Aimhigher Week kicked off nationally on Monday, with Northamptonshire's group holding a series of taster sessions at the university.

The scheme's aim is to widen participation in higher education by young people from under-represented groups.

The interactive events, which are targeted at Year 9 school pupils, include a campus tour, higher education quiz and creative workshop.

Aimhigher Northamptonshire is also celebrating the launch of a ground-breaking mentoring programme which will be rolled out locally in September.

Aimhigher Associates is the first scheme of its kind to build long term links between university students and school pupils from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Undergraduates will be recruited to become Associates, using their personal experience to encourage and support pupils as young as 13 to make the most of their talents.

David Lammy, Minister of State for Higher Education, said: "We have invested £21 million in supporting Aimhigher Associates so that young people from disadvantaged backgrounds can meet with mentors who can give them a better understanding of what university is like, and guide them through the application process."

Philip Burch, Manager of Aimhigher Northamptonshire, added: "Aimhigher Associates will add to the diverse range of activities delivered locally to help break down the barriers that can prevent pupils from progressing to higher education."

Make a Will

Why people need to think about wills

Advertising feature

PEOPLE make wills to make sure their possessions go to who they want them to after their death.

It's not a topic most of us like to think about but the harsh fact is a will is the best way to ensure your last wishes are adhered to.

And it's best to get proper legal advice when making it because there are a number of factors to consider, including the rules on inheritance tax.

You will also be able to name an executor when you make your will.

That person will also be responsible for making sure your wishes are followed.

Making a will will help sort how your assets are shared, whether you want them to go to your husband or wife, partner, children, parents, neighbour, friend etc.

A will can also help put in place arrangements for children under 18 in your care and what will happen to them should anyting happen to you.

It's also important to make sure your will is up-to-date.

Any event in your life, for example separation or divorce, will have an impact on what you want to happen.

If it's not kept up-to-date it could cause problems down the line for your executor and solicitor.

The advertisers on this page will be able to help you through the will writing process to give you piece of mind.

GUESTS: Richard Madeley and left, Fern Britton

For the book worms

BY JULIE FISHER
julie.fisher@hpnorthants.co.uk

A NUMBER of high profile personalities will be taking part in the sixth Althorp Literary Festival - including Richard Madeley and Fern Britton.

The event takes place from tomorrow until Sunday and will be visited by Alastair Campbell, Fiona Millar, Richard Madeley, Fern Britton, Simon Schama, Bernard Cornwell and many others.

Tomorrow night, Sandi Toksvig will perform her one-woman show and This Morning presenter Fern Britton will talk about her life and career.

Rick Wakeman and Pattie Boyd will give insights into the world of rock n' roll and discuss their recent work alongside historians, Simon Schama, Andrew Roberts, Antony Beevor and Tristram Hunt. Story-teller, Bernard Cornwell, will be joined by historian Juliet Barker to explore his latest novel, Agincourt.

Stanley Johnson, father of Mayor of London Boris, will talk about his life and Conn Iggulden shares his choice of heroes from the much anticipated The Dangerous Book of Heroes.

Former children's laureate Anne Fine will lead the children's strand of the festival, while illustrator of The Gruffalo, Axel Scheffler, will share stories and draw pictures. Nicholas Allan will entertain with tales from The Queen's Knickers and Cinderella's Bum, along with Louise Rennison whose Angus, Thongs and Perfect Snogging was a smash-hit film. Other events include a children's tour of the house and a performance of Georgiana, Lady Spencer's letters after the death of her husband, called My Dear Howey.

Bestselling author Louis de Bernieres provides the finale with readings and music. For more information about the festival and the other guests, visit www.althorp.com/literary_programme.php

DEBENHAMS

Chance to take a trip to York

HERITAGE rail tour operator The Railway Touring Company has announced that its special steam train to York, The Yorkshireman, will be stopping at Kettering on Saturday, July 11.

Heads will turn as locomotive 70013 Oliver Cromwell steams into the town at around 8.54am and, courtesy of The Railway Touring Company, one lucky Herald & Post reader and their family will be there waiting to board the vintage, 1950s rail coaches of The Yorkshireman.

We have a Family First Class ticket worth £320 to give away to the lucky winner of our Summer Steam Competition.

From Kettering The Yorkshireman will head northwards hauled by magnificent 'giant of steam', 1951-built 70013 Oliver Cromwell.

By special permission The Yorkshireman will take the normally freight only line through Corby so that the train will cross the magnificent Harringworth Viaduct, the longest railway viaduct in England, with superb views over the Welland Valley.

After calling at Loughborough the train will travel along the Soar and Erewash Valleys on its way to Barrow Hill where it will stop for water.

Scheduled to arrive in York at around 12.40pm, passengers will have four hours to explore this fascinating city with its ancient walls, towering Minister, Jorvik Viking Centre, the famous Shambles and, of course, the National Railway Museum, before The Yorkshireman heads home hauled by Oliver Cromwell to Leicester and then by diesel for the final stretch.

The Railway Touring Company is offering a range of ticket options including standard at £79 or £220 for a family and first class, which includes morning coffee and Danish pastries with tea and biscuits in the afternoon, at £115 or £320 for a family. If you have a really special occasion to celebrate the Premier Dining ticket option for The Yorkshireman is sure to make it a memorable.

Premier Dining passengers will enjoy a full English breakfast, a light lunch and a four course evening meal silver served at their seat on board the train.

More details of this, other day trips and heritage rail-based holidays are available from The Railway Touring Company on 01553 661500 or at www.railwaytouring.co.uk.

For your chance to win a day out on The Yorkshireman, answer the following question:

Which steam locomotive will haul The Yorkshireman on Saturday, July 11?

Send your answer, along with your name, address and telephone number, to: Summer Steam Competition, Herald & Post, 9 Derngate, Northampton.

Entries must reach us by 9am on Thursday, June 18.

The winner's details will be passed on to the competition organisers.

The Railway Touring Company's terms and conditions apply. A family fare is based on two adults and two children (aged five to 16 years inclusive).

How does your garden grow?

BY LAURA CORCORAN
laura.corcoran@hpnorthants.co.uk

HAS your lawn got what it takes to be crowned the best in Britain?

Green fingered gardeners with beautiful lawns in Northampton are being urged to nominate their turf for judging against the rest of the country, with the launch of Briggs and Stratton's Britain's Best Lawn Competition.

Last year's award went to Keswick based Dr Robert Strachan for his high quality and unusual shaped lawn.

Dr Strachan said: "The lawn is the centre piece of our garden, used for relaxing, socialising and outdoor games and I was delighted to win."

The competition is open to anyone living in the UK and there's £1,000 worth of lawnmower equipment and a day's expert advice from lawn guru and garden writer, Martin Fish up for grabs.

Briggs and Stratton's business development manager, Ian Small said: "This is a fantastic competition which really accentuates the importance of the British lawn and the work that goes into maintaining it."

Do you think your lawn has what it takes to be crowned best in Britain? If so call Alice Brett on 01332 258335 for an entry form and send it together with a selection of photographs, which best illustrate your lawn to Paskett Public Relations, Unit 24-25, Friar Gate Studios, Ford Street, Derby, DE1 1EE.

The closing date for entries is Friday, August 28.

Top of the world

A CASINO worker is preparing to climb Mount Everest to help people with terminal conditions.

Kerri McGarry, 32, who works at Gala Casino, is training to take part in a 17 day trek across some of the toughest terrain in the world.

Along with 23 colleagues from Gala across the country she has pledged to raise £100,000 through sponsorship for Sue Ryder Care.

All money raised will go directly to help provide quality care for people living with end of life and long-term conditions including cancer, stroke, brain injury, multiple sclerosis, dementia, Huntington's Disease, Parkinson's Disease and Motor Neurone Disease.

Kerri said: "I would like to raise a huge amount of money for Sue Ryder Care as well as take on a challenge that is a once in a lifetime.

"I would like to appeal to people to sponsor me to help raise as much money as possible for Sue Ryder Care.

"By supporting me in this way, people can help doctors, nurses and care staff continue to provide four million hours of expert care each year and make a real difference to the lives of thousands of people."

The Everest challenge is part of an ongoing initiative by the Gala Coral Group to raise £1million for Sue Ryder Care.

Glimpse into private lives

BY JODIE PARSONS
jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE second of the Alan Ayckbourn trio of plays opens later this month and the audience will find themselves sat on the stage alongside the actors.

Following Royal & Derngate's opener, Just Between Ourselves which is showing until Saturday, the Ayckbourn at 70 celebration continues with the playwright's 2004 play Private Fears in Public Places.

It will take to the Royal stage from Monday, June 22 to Saturday, July 11.

Six people looking for love and companionship against a backdrop of a modern city find their lives intersecting in this beautiful play.

Nicola wants a new flat, Imogen a new man, Stewart wants Charlotte, Charlotte wants to spread God's love, while Ambrose wants a quiet life and Dan wants another drink. And the characters discover what you see in public isn't always what's going on in private.

Unlike most Ayckbourn plays the action moves frequently between scenes and the audience will find themselves at the heart of the piece, in an office, a living room or a hotel bar, alongside the characters.

It is directed by Royal & Derngate's artistic director Laurie Sansom, who spent four years working as Alan's associate in Scarborough.

It is the same cast as Just Between Ourselves and includes Lucy Briers, Kim Wall and Matthew Cottle.

■ Tickets are £11-£27 from 01604 624811.

Helping the voluntary sector support local communities

Mediators Heartlands Mediation

Volunteers are required who want to work in conflict situations (mainly neighbourhood disputes, such as regarding noise).

Volunteer mediators offer neighbours opportunity to use the mediation process, give parties an equal chance to be heard, and empower them to address conflicts constructively.

Mediators work in pairs. This is a very satisfying role and helps warring neighbours find a way to live beside each other.

Full training is given and this is a recognised qualification.

If you are interested in this volunteering opportunity or any others, please contact: Northampton Volunteering Centre, 15 St Giles Street, Northampton, NN1 1JA, 01604 637522 or email: info@northampton-volunteers.org.uk

Steven Houghton and Susan McFadden as Adam and Milly and inset, Susan on stage

Lucky seven is a smasher

BY JODIE PARSONS
jodie.parsons@hpnorthants.co.uk

AUDIENCES will be in seventh heaven as thigh-slapping family musical Seven Brides for Seven Brothers storms the stage.

Voted the third most popular musical of all time by BBC Radio 2 listeners, Seven Brides for Seven Brothers is a toe-tapping romp full of energy, dazzling dance routines and sixteen smash hit showstoppers.

Direct from the West End it comes to Milton Keynes Theatre for one week from June 16, starring Steven Houghton (Bugs, London's Burning) and Susan McFadden, winner of ITV's Grease is the Word.

Houghton plays Adam Pontipee while McFadden plays Milly Pontipee. Set in Oregon in 1850 Seven Brides for Seven Brothers tells the story of Adam who goes to town to get a wife and convinces Milly to marry him that same day.

They return to his home where Milly discovers he has six brothers - all living under one roof.

Milly sets to change the brothers, who are anxious to get wives of their own.

Songs include Bless Your Beautiful Hide, Wonderful, Wonderful Day, Goin' Courtin', Sobbin' Women, Love Never Goes Away and We Gotta Make It Through the Winter.

Attractive garden at the rear

Vicarage Rise
Lois Weedon
£399,950

A four bedroom detached home situated in a cul-de-sac, situated, in the opinion of Your Move Hobin Roberts, in one of south Northamptonshire's prettiest villages.

The accommodation briefly comprises entrance hall, study, cloakroom/wc, lounge, dining room, kitchen, utility area, master bedroom with en-suite, three further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside there is a garden to the front with off street parking, and a double garage.

To the rear of the property is an attractive rear garden.

For more information, or to arrange a viewing, call Your Move Hobin Roberts on 01604 591066.

Four-bed detached village home

Extended property near to amenities

Peveril Road
Duston Village
£299,950

AN extended five bedroom, semi-detached cottage is located in the heart of Duston village with good access to local shops and amenities.

The accommodation is laid out over three floors and comprises entrance hall, living room, dining room, family room, kitchen, utility room, ground floor w.c. and cellar.

Stairs rise to the first floor where there are three bedrooms, a shower room, a bathroom, and separate w.c.

On the second floor there are two further bedrooms.

There is also a beautiful and substantial rear garden.

Viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the grounds and location.

For more information, or to arrange a viewing, call Your Move Hobin Roberts on 01604 591066.

OFT

It's About Property and People!

Since opening our doors in 1996 we have continually tried to be a different estate agent. We have always believed this business is about people and not property. Passionate people make things happen!

Last year we took the bold step of changing the way we worked and decided to adopt the business model that is used throughout most of Europe, the US, Canada, Australia and South Africa. We wanted to attract the best and most experienced property professionals to help steer us through this changing market. ALL our Property Consultants are 'self employed' and reap what they sow. They are driven individuals who don't 'clock on' in the morning and 'off' in the evening. We are the ONLY estate agents in Northampton and Rugby to operate in this way. You'll notice the difference from the moment you meet us to the moment we move you.

HORTS™ ESTATE AGENTS

1-2-1 relationships

We believe that when selling a property a vendor should have one point of contact. They should be able to get hold of the person dealing with their home at all times including evenings and weekends. Committed sales people do not 'clock on' and 'clock off' to regimented working hours. All our Property Consultants freely give out their mobile numbers and direct email addresses because they want to hear from you at a time to suit you not to suit them.

Team spirit

As all of our Property Consultants are self employed and have no basic salary to rely upon they will only earn if the property they are marketing sells. This means that if they haven't got any potential buyers already registered it is in their interest to promote the home and share the commission with their colleagues. This creates a very competitive and proactive environment and gives our vendors nine estate agents for the price of one.

Expert control

Getting an offer on a property is often the easy part of our business. Getting the sale through to exchange can sometimes be a challenge. Dealing with solicitors, mortgage lenders and other estate agents in the chain is a full time job and requires a great deal of knowledge and, of course, a sprinkling of patience. Most sales people are not equipped to do this so we place all of our sales in the hands of our expert Sales Coordinators.

Clever boards

If you have ever called an estate agent from the telephone number on the 'for sale' board you will have often found that the person you speak to rarely knows the property to any depth. This is because the person that placed the property on the market is normally out of the office valuing other homes. Horts 'for sale' boards have distinctive telephone numbers that divert to the Property Consultant dealing with that home so you always speak to the right person.

THE NORTHAMPTONSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL (C201 BRACKLEY ROAD, SYRESHAM & A413 TOWCESTER ROAD/BRACKLEY ROAD, SILVERSTONE)
(TEMPORARY 7.5 TONNE WEIGHT RESTRICTION) ORDER 2009

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Northamptonshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to impose a 7.5 Tonne Weight Restriction along those lengths of the C201 Brackley Road, Syresham and the A413 Towcester Road/Brackley Road, Silverstone as set out in the Schedule below.

REASON FOR RESTRICTION: The restriction is required on the grounds of road safety during the British Grand Prix 2009.

PERIOD OF CLOSURE: The proposed Order will come into effect on 19th June 2009 and will continue in force for a period of eighteen months. An application may be made for the approval of the Secretary of State for Transport for the Order to be extended if this proves necessary. However, the restriction specified will have effect only at such times and to such an extent as is indicated by the display of signs prescribed by the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002.

EXPECTED DURATION: It is expected that the roads will be restricted until 21st June 2009.

THE A43 TRUNK ROAD (SILVERSTONE BRITISH GRAND PRIX, BRACKLEY TO TOWCESTER, NORTHAMPTONSHIRE)
(TEMPORARY RESTRICTION AND PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2009

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport has made an Order on the A43 Trunk Road between Brackley and Towcester in the County of Northamptonshire, to allow for traffic to travel in safety to and from the Silverstone Racing Circuit for the British Grand Prix.

The traffic safety measures will commence at midnight on Sunday 14 June 2009 and end at midnight on Friday 26 June 2009. The Order will come into force on 15 June 2009 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.

The effect of the Order will be to –

(a) impose a 40 or 50 miles an hour speed limit on the lengths of A43 described in Part I of the Schedule below;

(b) reverse the flow of traffic on the lengths of A43 described in Part II of the Schedule below;

(c) close the lengths of A43 described in Part III of the Schedule below;

(d) prohibit any vehicle with an operating weight exceeding 7.5 tonnes from entering or proceeding in the lengths of A43 described in Part IV of the Schedule below; and

(e) close -

(i) between midnight on Tuesday 16 and midnight on Tuesday 23 June the lay-by adjacent to the A43 -

- northbound carriageway situated 1200 metres south of the Green Man Public House,
- southbound carriageway situated 920 metres south of Abthorpe Roundabout,
- southbound carriageway situated 990 metres north of Dadford Road overbridge, and
- southbound carriageway situated 1200 metres south of Dadford Road overbridge; and

(ii) from 4.30am – 9pm on Friday 19, Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 June, the gap in the central reservation of the A43 situated –

- opposite its junction with the Green Man Public House,
- at a point 530 metres north of its junction with the Green Man Public House, and
- opposite its junction with The Avenue, Whitfield.

During the closure between the B4525 Welsh Lane and the A43/Brackley Road roundabout at Towcester vehicles will be diverted from the A43 south of Brackley, via the A421, A422, A508 and the M1 (Junction 15 to Junction 15a).

Any vehicle being used for police, fire and rescue authority or ambulance purposes will be exempt from the speed restrictions, weight restriction and closures and any vehicle being used in connection with the operation of the British Grand Prix will be exempt from the weight restriction and layby closures.

The speed restrictions, carriageway, slip road, gap and layby closures, weight restriction, one-way systems, and diversion routes will be clearly signposted throughout the event.

BE A 'PROPERTY PROFESSIONAL'

Regardless of the recession, a new European Directive now legally requires an estimated 2.5 million homes and commercial properties being rented, sold or built to have an Energy Assessment this year alone. And more 'green environmental' laws are coming!

For example next year nearly every commercial property with air-conditioning must have an Assessment before the January 2011 deadline.

Applicants are therefore required to train now as multi-skilled 'Property Professionals' to carry out commercial and air-conditioning Energy Assessments and many other roles such as Flood and Fire Risk Assessments, Energy Audits, Insulation Surveys, Property Valuations, Home Condition Reports, Public Buildings Assessments etc.

No previous experience is necessary, training to join this new growth industry can usually be taken around current job at our nationwide training centres approved by the Government-appointed Awarding Body for the Built Environment and is subsidised. On qualifying start your own energy business, work for other Assessment Providers or be available for potential full or part-time work through our Energy Assessor Panel with earnings of £50 to £1,200 per Assessment.

Ring today for an interview and find out more about a career opportunity in this fast-expanding, new 'green' industry.

Get your brand closer to people's lives

No other medium is as close to people's hearts as Regional Press. Consumers consider it an integral part of their community.
The effectiveness of regional press advertising in driving sales comes down to the simple fact that people prefer to do most of their spending close to where they live.
Consumers' Choice V, a national consumer survey by TNS Media, found that regional press advertising is the most frequently acted upon, with 61% of people responding to it*.
No wonder brands enjoy a closer relationship with consumers when advertised in this, the most trusted and effective medium of all.

*See Consumers' Choice V at www.newspapersoc.org.uk

Northants man stars in Irish 20/20 victory

NORTHANTS star Niall O'Brien was the toast of Ireland this week as he helped power his side through to the Super Eights phase of the Twenty20 World Cup.

The wicketkeeper-batsman shrugged off an ankle injury to belt 40 off just 25 balls as his side beat Bangladesh in a low scoring display.

Man of the match O'Brien also impressed with his neat wicketkeeping skills as Bangladesh mustered just 137-8 from their 20 overs.

Coming in at number three - and batting with a runner - he then smashed paceman Mashrafe Mortaza for three sixes in an over, peppering the short, on-side boundary.

The left-hander then took two further boundaries off the first over of spin, bowled by Mahmudullah.

Despite a wobble in the middle Niall's brother Kevin hit a quickfire 33 to see the Irishmen home.

O'Brien's knock brought a smile back to Northamptonshire coach David Capel's face after his side suffered their first defeat of the domestic 20/20 competition.

On Friday, Somerset inflicted the Steelbacks' first defeat of the season as Charl Willoughby took 4-29 at Wantage Road.

Despite 30 off 17 balls from Aussie Ian Harvey, Northants fell 30 runs short of Somerset's 164 prompting skipper Nicky Boje to admit his side may have to rethink their run-chase tactics.

South African Boje, who missed the game through injury, said the club's management team may have to sit down and make sure their plans are properly set out for future chases.

Boje was disappointed with the lack of partnerships formed by Steelbacks players against the Sabres.

But before that Northants face the prospect of back to back county championship games against Surrey and Glamorgan.

The side currently lie in fourth position in the table following a promising start to the season and will be looking to dodge the rain over the next fortnight to collect as many points as possible.

RETHINK: Northants skipper, South African Nicky Boje

NORTHANTS take on Surrey at the County Ground in their latest County Championship game.

The match, which started today, will see former Northamptonshire fast bowler Andre Nel return to the club for his new side.

After that it is a trip to Wales to take on Glamorgan. That game runs from Tuesday, June 16 and will take place at the Swalec Stadium where England are set to play the first Ashes test of the summer.

NORTHANTS
Leading run scorer: Andrew Hall 319 runs @ 63.8
Leading wicket taker: David Wigley 15 wickets @ 29.46

SURREY
Leading run scorer: Usman Afzaal 225 runs @ 45.0
Leading wicket taker: Andre Nel 8 wickets @28.0

GLAMORGAN
Leading run scorer: James Dalrymple 331 runs @ 82.75
Leading wicket taker: David Harrison 11 wickets @ 33.54

Weather beaten as ball dominates

NCL REVIEW

DESPITE appalling conditions all the Premier Division's sides got in a full day's cricket, with the game of the day coming at Stony Stratford.

The hosts fell agonisingly short of victory, losing by one run against Finedon Dolben.

Chasing just 99 to win in a rain-affected match, Stony looked likely winners on 70-5, but lost their last five wickets for just 28 runs to come up agonisingly short.

Put in to bat Finedon struggled against left armer Steve Bellew who took 5-24, while Nathan Hawkes chipped in with 4-25.

And 31 from Zimbabwean Dion Ebrahim seemed to have set Stony on the path to victory before their late collapse.

Elsewhere, a low-scoring match saw Brixworth fall to 74 all out, chasing Old Northamptonians' modest 156-9.

John Wolstenholme was the star of the show taking 5-24.

Mark Ralph's 64 helped Wollaston to a 123-run victory away to Desborough Town.

Wollaston made 227, before reducing the hosts to 104 thanks to Steve Musgrave's impressive 5-11.

The ball was also on top as Northampton Saints recorded a comfortable victory against Burton Latimer.

Chasing 173 for victory, Latimer were skittled for just 106 (Richard Stemp 4-17).

Alan Burton and Lewis Bruce racked up the runs as Peterborough Town reached 250-7 in their 55 overs against Rushden Town.

The pair put on 167 for the fourth wicket after Burton made the most of a simple dropped chance on 16 to make 110.

Bruce made 80, before Ajaz Akhtar blew Rushden away with 4-26.

A brave rearguard action by David Ripley (67 not out) and Ryan Findlay (58 not out) saved Northamptonshire Cricket Academy from what seemed a certain defeat.

The Academy had slumped to 59-6 chasing Rushden's mammoth 288-4.

Kieran Pierce's 5-50 had blown away the top order, before Ripley and Findlay put on 141 to salvage an unlikely draw.

Earlier Marcus Steed (64), Mandeep Singh (86) and Dean Joy (58 not out) had scored well for Rushden.

Looking forward to great final

HEAD Coach David Capel's exclusive column for the Herald & Post chronicles the latest news and results from the County Ground.

IF what I've seen so far is anything to go by I'd enjoy nothing more than watching South Africa take on Sri Lanka in the World 20/20 final.

The tournament has been a real success so far and the performances of those two teams have been exceptional.

AB de Villiers played a fantastic innings against Scotland, while Australia just couldn't cope with the invention of Dilshan and Sangakkara.

The Sri Lankan's bowling variety, including a flurry of changes after each over, showed a huge amount of different skills.

I'm certainly looking forward to seeing more of that.

The West Indies also look a good side, with Chris Gayle sat at the front of the innings.

And their not just a one-man band as players like Chanderpaul and Sarwan have proven class.

It was also nice to see Ireland and Holland being successful. There has been a lot of encouragement for the smaller teams and it's pleasing to see emerging nations getting wins.

Part of Ireland's success was a really good display from Niall O'Brien.

I am really pleased for him. His wicketkeeping skills were excellent and attracted the attention of the commentators.

He is a cricketer who works very hard and deserves his success – something that has epitomised the way our lads have gone about their 20/20 this year.

Five wins from six is great, but we now have to switch back to four day cricket with the visit of Surrey followed by a game against Glamorgan.

Surrey find themselves in the second division again and last season they found it tough.

It has been a lean period for them, but we respect any opposition that we come up against and we will play as if we were up against Essex, Middlesex or any other side.

If we perform our skills to our potential the opposition have to contend with that.

Only results will tell how we cope with switching from 20/20 to four day cricket, but we certainly had a good talk about it today.

We have to look back at the four games we have played so far and see that we have been successful.

We have done well so far, particularly with a few players out and we are looking to step back into good habits and adjust accordingly.

The lads are looking forward to that.

The way I view it is that every days cricket is vital, whether championship, one-dayer, 20/20 or a practice day.

When your mindset is right you play your best cricket, whatever the format.

It's different for more seasoned players like Gayle. Saying he prefers 20/20 to test cricket was a big comment to make, but he's played a lot of test and one day cricket and proved himself.

Chris has got to a stage in his career where he finds tests and one-dayers more onerous on his body.

He will be focusing in on different things from a 23 or 24-year-old who has a lot to prove.

The short form of the game offers him a lot of money for his future and is less stress on his body, particularly as he doesn't have to run much with the way he hits the ball.

Heineken draw sets up 'exciting Cup challenge'

RUGBY UNION

NORTHAMPTON Saints will face Munster, Perpignan and Benetton Treviso in next season's Heineken Cup.

The draw was made by ERC's Jean-Pierre Lux and Derek McGrath at Stade De France on Tuesday and the club's director of rugby, Jim Mallinder, believes it will be an exciting challenge.

Perpignan reached the final in 2004 while Munster province lifted the silverware in 2006 and 2008.

Saints beat Munster in the competition in 2000 and it will be the first competitive meeting for the two clubs since then.

Northampton qualified for the competition by beating Bourgoin 15-3 in the European Challenge Cup Final.

Mallinder said: "It's a very exciting and challenging draw for us.

"The Heineken Cup is the best club competition in the world and it has lived up to its billing with the draw we have received. We are an ambitious club and if we want to improve we have to test ourselves against the best sides in Europe.

"We will certainly have the opportunity to do that next season against Munster, Perpignan and Treviso.

> Saints director of rugby, Jim Mallinder

"It is also a great draw for the fans.

"One of the highlights of the season just gone was seeing the number of supporters who made the trips to places like Montpellier and Toulon and next season they will have the opportunity to visit three countries and experience rugby culture in the heartlands of the game.

"I am certainly looking forward to the tournament."

Munster's travelling support is renowned throughout rugby and Saints are anticipating demand for tickets.

To guarantee your place at these games, season tickets are available.

Prices start from £260 for adults, £155 for concessions and £145 for juniors.

BOWLS

NORTHANTS are back in action this weekend in their second of three group stage matches in the Middleton Cup.

The men's team will face Suffolk on Saturday at 2pm at Wellingborough BC for the Inter County Midland Cup match following their convincing win over Hertfordshire.

Leicestershire will be up next on June 27.

Elsewhere Northamptonshire Under 25s continued their winning streak and remain on target to win their third Midland Counties 'Ron Barston' championship.

Up against Leicestershire, Saturday's game was a tough fight and despite Northants starting much better, having posted a 12 shot lead after five ends, Leicestershire pushed hard and by the halfway stage had reduced the deficit to four shots.

Keeping up the pressure, Leicestershire then took the lead by six shots after 15 ends, but Northamptonshire pulled back their opponents by taking 24 shots to eight over the next three ends to go ten shots ahead, a lead they were able to keep to the end with a final advantage of 13 shots.

With five winning rinks the young bowlers almost took maximum points in the table, which they lead.

Final score was Northamptonshire 124 shots, Leicestershire 111 shots.

MOTOR RACING

OLIVER Gavin has likened this weekend's Le Mans 24 Hours to climbing Mount Everest as he goes searching for his fifth class victory at the event.

Saturday sees the start of the 77th edition of the world-famous race in France, with Gavin and Corvette Racing team-mates Olivier Beretta and Marcel Fassler going for glory in the GT1 class.

But the Yardley Hastings-based racer, whose last win at the event came in 2006, knows that it will be as tough as ever to finish on the top step of the podium.

Gavin said: "Le Mans is like climbing Everest; you can train hard and look at the weather and think it will be fine, but at the last minute something can stop you reaching the summit.

"It's just one of those events and you can never take anything for granted.

"I personally think it is the greatest race in the world because it is truly a team event.

"It's not only a race against other people but also against yourself just by driving through the night and the difficult conditions. It is a physical and emotional rollercoaster."

This weekend will see the last running of the GT1 class at Le Mans, with Gavin and his team bidding farewell to their Corvette CR.6 that they have enjoyed success in at this event and in the American Le Mans Series (ALMS).

The former Formula One safety car driver said: "The Corvette C6.R has been fantastically successful. It's a great car and I've enjoyed running and driving it.

"I think a lot of the drivers will be sorry to see the class go. The cars have got a lot of aerodynamics which means they have good grip.

"They're fast, they look great and they sound great. It is a shame to see the class go but that is the nature of motorsport."

'Encouraging' performance – but upgrades on the way

FORMULA 1 MOTOR RACING

THE Force India Formula One team has been 'encouraged' by their performance in the Turkish Grand Prix at the weekend, but will be making 'significant upgrades' in time for the British race at Silverstone.

Adrian Sutil ended in 17th place in Istanbul while team-mate Giancarlo Fisichella did not finish.

He retired on the fourth lap because of a brake problem his car had been suffering from for most of the weekend.

Sutil had a competitive first stint on the hard tyres and had moved up to 11th before his first stop on lap 20.

Remaining on the hard tyres for the second part of the race, he held station just behind McLaren's Heikki Kovalainen and kept Rubens Barrichello at bay until his second and final stop on lap 36. The German switched to the soft tyre for the remaining part of the race to finish 17th.

Brackley-based Brawn GP driver Jenson Button won the Turkish GP - his sixth victory out of seven races so far this season. Mark Webber and Sebastian Vettel finished in second and third respectively.

Force India are now looking forward to the British Grand Prix at Silverstone - just opposite the team's factory - where a new aero upgrade is anticipated.

Sutil said: "Perhaps we had hoped for more from 15th on the grid.

"I lost a couple of places at the start, but was able to get them back quickly.

"The race pace was quite good though and I could have some exciting battles on track with a McLaren and a Brawn, which was great.

"It was not a real problem with Barrichello – he touched me once through a corner but I was just defending position.

"It was an interesting race, the car balance and the race pace were pretty good.

"Only the result was not as we would have liked, but it's been quite a positive weekend overall."

Fisichella added: "I have had a few problems with the braking this weekend.

"We changed all the brake systems to see if it made any difference, but it was actually worse today as the car was almost completely locked.

"I had a good start and in the beginning of the race I was quite competitive with the cars around me, but then unfortunately the brake pedal was getting longer and longer and we decided to come back in to the pits.

"We tried to see if we could get back out again, but in the end it was very risky and we had to retire.

"It's a shame as I enjoy this race, but I've just had terrible luck at the track."

Dr Vijay Mallya, chairman and team principal, said: "I think we hoped for slightly more from this race, but the overall weekend performance has consolidated the steps forward we took in Monaco.

"We've got through to Q2 for the second race in a row and Adrian drove a very competitive race, particularly on his first and second stints.

"Unfortunately Giancarlo retired very early on with a brake problem he had had during several of the earlier sessions. We can be encouraged by this team performance however and also in the knowledge that we have some significant upgrades coming through for Silverstone in a couple of weeks' time."
